

D<sup>1</sup>
a second injection molding is injection molded over the primary blank plastic material where only the protruded trademark pattern of the primary blank plastic material is not covered by the second injection molding material. --

---